

Meet and Greet
Ladera Boys' Small Group

Your son's small group leaders:

Dennis Beckner
(949) 555-5555
username@domain.com

Josh Johannsen
(949) 555-5555
username@domain.com

Here's what your son can expect from being in our Life Group this year:

- Accountable relationships
- Being challenged to grow spiritually
- Getting prayed for as he communicates needs
- Building tight relationships within the small group
- Making great memories
- Experiencing fellowship through activities:
 - o 2 or 3 times each year we'll have a night where only a few students show up. We'll likely move the group to Starbucks on those nights
 - o We'll have a few events throughout the year outside of Life Group

Here's what we expect from your son as a member of the Life Group:

- Regular attendance: sporadic attendance will not be allowed. Please have him call or text if he will be absent
 - Kindness toward the group: we do not allow the guys to tear each other down. They get enough of that other places
 - Participation: for the group to go deeper relationally and spiritually, each member has to participate in discussions
 - Keeping what's shared in the group confidential
 - Honoring his parents: we expect students to have an open, honest and respectful relationship with his parents
-

We highly value parents! Please send your contact information to me at username@domain.com so we can stay in touch. Josh and I hope to send a weekly email. Either one of us are available to talk if you ever want to get or give some input. Keep in mind that we are obligated to keep what your son shares with us confidential unless he gives permission for us to share or is in danger.

Meet and Greet
Ladera Boys' Small Group

Your son's small group leaders:

Dennis Beckner
(949) 555-5555
username@domain.com

Josh Johannsen
(949) 555-5555
username@domain.com

Here's what your son can expect from being in our Life Group this year:

- Accountable relationships
- Being challenged to grow spiritually
- Getting prayed for as he communicates needs
- Building tight relationships within the small group
- Making great memories
- Experiencing fellowship through activities:
 - o 2 or 3 times each year we'll have a night where only a few students show up. We'll likely move the group to Starbucks on those nights
 - o We'll have a few events throughout the year outside of Life Group

Here's what we expect from your son as a member of the Life Group:

- Regular attendance: sporadic attendance will not be allowed. Please have him call or text if he will be absent
 - Kindness toward the group: we do not allow the guys to tear each other down. They get enough of that other places
 - Participation: for the group to go deeper relationally and spiritually, each member has to participate in discussions
 - Keeping what's shared in the group confidential
 - Honoring his parents: we expect students to have an open, honest and respectful relationship with his parents
-

We highly value parents! Please send your contact information to me at username@domain.com so we can stay in touch. Josh and I hope to send a weekly email. Either one of us are available to talk if you ever want to get or give some input. Keep in mind that we are obligated to keep what your son shares with us confidential unless he gives permission for us to share or is in danger.